PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

MINTING MINE CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Dear Traveler,

We guess you've probably come to EE UNIVERSE for our most famous tourist attraction: the Minting Mine. A respected museum, exhibiting relics of historical significance. We sincerely apologize for having to bring bad news: it is closed indefinitely due to several Base Forms - the citizens of EE UNIVERSE - looting treasured Traits of Entities we once worshiped.

Although we do truly understand the rush of Collecting, we do not condone disorderly conduct and theft.

Think about it, we built the Minting Mine to salvage the memory of the great and glorious. Yeah, of course we get that it's a moment of pure bliss when you put the 3 Traits of an Entity together, and it gets ETERNALIZED.

And let's not forget the bucks that can be made by trading.

And the camaraderie among Creators and Collectors of our Community.

But...

Fuck it, the Minting Mine will have it's grand reopening soon!

Stick around for specifics on eternalentities.io.

Thanks.

Kind regards,

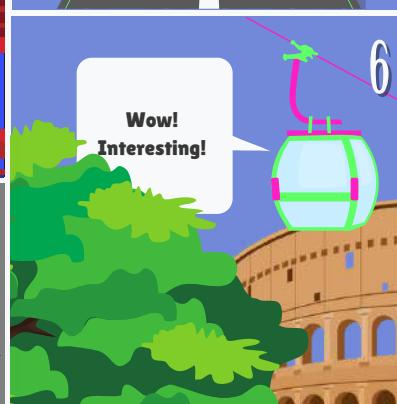

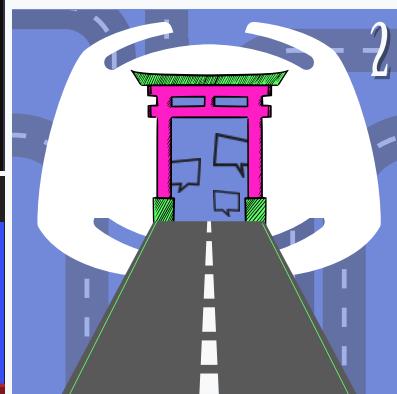

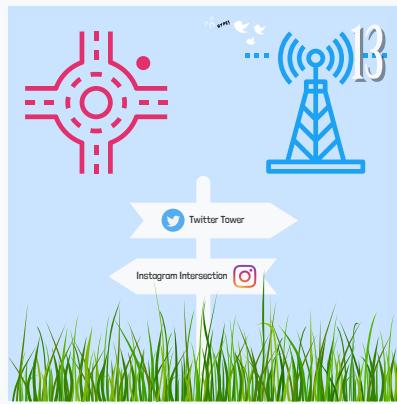

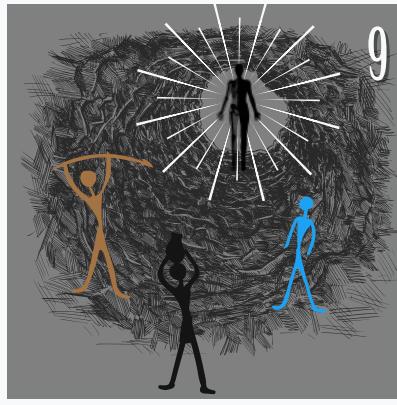

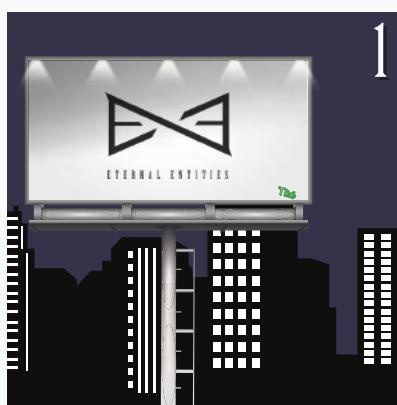

El DeBard

El DeBard, of the Board of EE UNIVERSE

There's a lot to take in, but we got you covered!

WELCOME TO EE UNIVERSE

Whether you're just stopping by or are here to stay for Eternity.

EE UNIVERSE is glad to have you!

We welcome you to a place that is unlike anything you have ever seen before.

The EE UNIVERSE has been home to the Base Forms and Entities for centuries, but only until recently discovered by foreign Creators and Collectors.

With infinite digital acres, there is never a shortage of space for newcomers!

If this is your first time here, we recommend that you explore the exciting possibilities and places EE UNIVERSE has to offer you. Let's start with the Center. The Center of EE UNIVERSE is easily accessible by hitting the > CENTER THIS WAY sign below.

In the midst of our Center, you will see EE UNIVERSE's greatest spectacle: the Minting Mine.

A sacred shrine turned museum, in honor of the mythical Eternal Entities that once roamed among us. Unfortunately, times have changed and all that the new generation of Base Forms care about is speculative trading and raw-dogging.

The Minting Mine is closed for the time being, but be sure to check back to see when it reopens.

If you're wandering around our Center and you happen to bump into the PHASE II construction site; we are building an art gallery for the ETERNALIZED Entities that are restored by the Collectors of our Community. The art gallery will be an exhibition of the Eternal Entities and it will keep track of all Owners of Eternal Equity.

Eternal Equity is a certificate of gratitude who helped ETERNALIZING the Entities and the government of EE UNIVERSE will make sure every Owner of Eternal Equity will be rewarded handsomely.

But how does one get their hands on Eternal Equity..?

Join our Community and find out! Our Community resides in the hotspots of EE UNIVERSE. Every hotspot is connected to Discord District, so grab your stuff and let's head on over there! Time to meet your fellow Travelers and join a Faction to participate in Contests to get you closer to your goals and moola.

FACTIONS

STONE VILLAGE

Faction: The Prehistoric Storytellers

The hotspot for all visual artists and designers of EE UNIVERSE.

The stomping ground of the STONE Base Forms, the place where it all started.

Back when the closest thing to Photoshop was contorting someone's face with a firm rock, these untroubled Base Forms were in charge.

Nowadays, they are drawing in Creators to join The Prehistoric Storytellers, a Faction with a goal to find the Entities with the help of their remarkable talent for drawing & design and dick jokes.

SHADE TOWN

Faction: The Dark Age Bards

In SHADE TOWN, the pen is always mightier than the sword. And a sick beat is preferred over a beating. The SHADE Base Forms live in harmony with everyone and will welcome all Creators with open arms. SHADE TOWN is the gloomy home base of The Dark Age Bards, a Faction composed of sophisticated virtuoso with a yearning to conquer the Entities through the means of music & words and wiener banter.

REVISE CITY

Faction: The Futurum Chroniclers

Animated streets and cinematic sightings, REVISE CITY is like Hollywood.

Except there is no holly, but there's a lot of wood though!

The sidewalks are packed with the REVISE Base Forms, always on the move, in search of Creators to reinforce their Faction, The Futurum Chroniclers.

Time to GIF it all you've got and acquire some Entities; run the show with motion & animation and pecker puns.

The glorious history of EE UNIVERSE

Once you've combed through all the exceptional hotspots of Discord District, you might feel the appetite for some historical background to every superb setting you took in.

Although a lot of details about EE antiquity is shrouded in mystery, we offer in-depth tours through the dimly lit caves in which the paintings of ancient STONE base Form's laborious toil. These days, the denizens of the land are weary and weary of war. pt.

Dear traveler,
if you see us wandering throughout ee universe, please don't walk past us in disgust. we are the forgotten.
in a distant past base forms and travelers paid money to see us! little did we know that if they lose interest we lose our identity. we live in symbiosis. i get that now please help me find my other 2 traits.

These days, ~~13627~~ an Entity in need our residents feel like doing so.

All holidays in honor of these great Gods are a part of the past now, but that doesn't mean we forgot about Them, and neither should you, Traveler...

And that's why we guarantee you, that once you've seen the marvels of the Minting Mine, you'll leave this place with a head full of EE memories and a heart filled with awe!

PHASE II

We've talked about the past, now let's talk about the future.

Collectors, visiting our gallery, to behold and buy the Entities you Eternalized...

Can you picture that?

Well, we absolutely can!

Granting the fact that our beautiful Minting Mine is EE UNIVERSE's main source of revenue, we aspire to aim higher and set up something of extreme value for all the amazing Creators and Collectors that moved into the EE UNIVERSE.

If you've been to the Center of EE UNIVERSE, you might have seen a PHASE II section. A section that is locked at the moment, for the reason that it is under construction. It is here, where the incredible epicenter of EE UNIVERSE will stand in the near future.

A gallery in which we exhibit works portraying the Eternal Entities, accumulated by our very own Community.

Every single visual concoction will be one of a kind, honoring the Eternal Entities in a unique way. The Eternal Entities are of immense value to EE UNIVERSE and that is exactly why we want to reward all Collector who put in their effort and monetary means to help ETERNALIZE the Entities.

Eternal Equity

Eternal Equity is what will grant you your share of all the moola that our Community rakes in by selling the Eternal Entities. Eternal Equity can also be sold to other Collectors, which means you give up your share and cash out. In turn they will get your piece of the pie, so ponder carefully about your decisions with your Eternal Equity to get maximum profit AND honor!
